Dear Mr. Chen,

Your request dated March 7, 2008 addressed to the Ministry of Justice has been handed over to the Board of Procurators General (College van Procureurs-Generaal) on April 8, 2008.

It has taken the Board of Procurators General some time to collect the information necessary to deal with your request, hence the delay in replying tot your letter, for which I offer my apologies.

The Board of Procurators General has received information that you are a suspect in a criminal investigation. Therefore the Board of Procurators General cannot comply with your request.

The Public Prosecutor involved in this criminal investigation has requested the aid of the Hong Kong authorities for arranging your examination with regard to this suspicion, which has not been successful. The Public Prosecutor will shortly sent a new request for your examination to the Thai authorities.

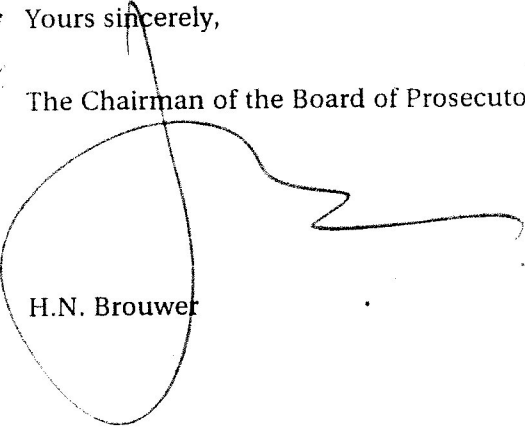

However, you can also contact the Public Prosecutor yourself. The Public Prosecutor has expressed his willingness to discuss with you a convenient time for the examination as well as the conditions applicable tot the examination.

The Public Prosecutor's contact details are: mr. Zwinkels, National Organised Crime Prosecution Unit (Landelijk Parket), telephone +31 20 8222 555, telefax +31 20 8222 599.

I trust herewith to have sufficiently informed you.

Yours sincerely,

The Chairman of the Board of Prosecutors General,

H.N. Brouwer
